

THE CHAPEL

The Chapel is a simple 18th Century building. The front gardens have been adapted to permit disabled access. It normally seats about 80 people but seating can be increased to about 100.

We have an organ, an electronic piano and a CD player for recorded music. There is a loop system for hearing-aid users.

Car parking is outside the chapel in Whiteley Lane. Guests are asked not to obstruct the Chapel gateway or neighbours' driveways

YOUR CEREMONY (Your Choices)

The person conducting the service will normally be a Unitarian Minister. Within legal requirements, the wording and order of service can be discussed with the Minister to accommodate your choices.

Arrangements for participation by religious leaders from other faiths can also be discussed.

MAKING THE ARRANGEMENTS

Please contact the Bookings Secretary, Gavin Mason (0114) 230-5482 for an initial discussion, or email an enquiry to him: g.h.mason@sheffield.ac.uk

It is possible to make a provisional booking with the Bookings Secretary. You can ask questions and agree possible dates/times. Various basic details will be needed from you. You will be asked to contact the registrar and discuss a date(s) & time(s). The registrar will also discuss with you the legal requirements.

FEES & PAYMENT

The overall cost includes the services of the Minister (initial interview, the service and sometimes a rehearsal; other agreed costs incurred being additional) and use of the Chapel. An organist can be made available. The registrar's fees are additional and paid direct. Fees on application.

A cheque for the deposit (payable to Fulwood Old Chapel) should be sent to the Bookings Secretary and the balance due to the Chapel should be sent to arrive at least two weeks before the wedding date.

In the event of cancellation, the balance of the fee will not be payable to the Chapel but the Minister may make a charge for any expenses incurred. We do this to ensure that, in the event of any change of mind by a couple, there is no undue cost pressure to proceed with a wedding.

What kind of wedding ceremony is right for you?

Whether you are single or divorced, of mixed faiths or of no particular faith, you can be married at the eighteenth century Unitarian Chapel in Whiteley Lane, Fulwood with a service to suit your needs. For us as a chapel the most important requirement is that you are truly committed to each other. You must discuss and satisfy all legal requirements with the Registrar.

You may feel that a civil ceremony is too brief and impersonal. You may not be churchgoers, or even religious in the conventional sense but, nevertheless, feel a reverence for the vows that are made at marriage and wish to express your faith in life, in one another and in your future together.

At Fulwood Old Chapel, you will find a Minister of the Unitarian Church (and lay people) ready to help you to celebrate the milestones in your life and to express your most personal promise in your chosen way.

UNITARIANISM

Unitarianism is a liberal religious alternative. It does not have specific doctrines but upholds the principle that each person is their own authority for what they believe. A Unitarian Church or Chapel enables people to develop their own awareness and understanding; individually and in community.

FULWOOD OLD CHAPEL COVENANT

'Love is the doctrine of this church, the quest for truth is its sacrament and service is its prayer. To dwell together in peace, to seek knowledge in freedom, to serve humanity in fellowship, to the end that all souls shall grow into harmony with the divine – thus we covenant with each other and with God'
